Mrs. Fleur Cowles

Dear Mrs. Cowles:

I received your note at Claridge's in London and was disappointed that I didn't have time to see you.

As my secretary indicated to you, my schedule was just so packed with one meeting after another with absolutely no time for socializing.

It was nice to get your note, and I hope my next trip to London is less hectic.

Best regards,

Henry A. Kissinger

Dear Ernst:

This is just a note to say thank you for your letter of March 6 and for your views on the President's trip.

I truly had no time at all to socialize while in Europe. The hours, as you can imagine, were endless.

Thanks again and please keep in touch. I look forward to hearing your views.

Warm regards,

Henry A. Kissinger
